

Sacred -Festivals –Journey, Mt. Kailash & Guge Kingdom with Roger – Special Tour

Holy Mount Kailash

The most sacred mountain in the Tibetan Buddhist world is also considered by many to be the centre of the universe. Uncannily symmetrical, this remote and remarkable peak is located in the far west of Tibet, 1200 km from Lhasa. Mt. Kailash (6714m) is not only geographically one of the most important mountains in Asia, it is also the source of four major rivers, namely, the Indus, Sutlej, Karnali and Tsang Po which nourish Asia with water. In Sanskrit Kailash means 'luminous crystal'. Hindus believe Mt. Kailash to be the abode of Lord Shiva and his wife Parvati. Tibetan Buddhists call the mountain Kang Rinpoche, the 'Jewel of Snow', and regard it as the body mandala of Korlo Demchog and his consort, Dorje Phagmo (Chakrasambhava and Vajrayogini). A pilgrimage to this great sacred and magical landscape is the most precious of pilgrimages for both Tibetan and Indian people, a journey they hope to experience at least once in a lifetime.

Mt. Kailash & Guge with Roger

From Kathmandu (or main land China) we fly to Lhasa and then drive through the West of Tibet to Guge. The mysterious old Kingdom of Guge was founded and flourished in the 10th century. It is famous for its wonderful frescos on the walls and its spectacular location in an impressive landscape. After that, the core of this journey follows: an unhurried four-day circuit trek (kora) among Tibetan pilgrims around holy Mt. Kailash followed by a visit of beautiful Lake Manasarovar. We enjoy silence and nature, spectacular panoramic views, as well as interaction within the group. Due to Saga Dawa time the most sacred month in the Tibetan calendar we will witness many festival activities especially in Gyanste and in Lhasa!

Expedition or Inner Purification

All trips to Mt. Kailash have expedition character. Long drives require a lot of patience, tolerance and little expectations. In return we will see some of the most untouched and beautiful landscapes and we are likely to meet genuinely nice people.

A pilgrimage through vast open spaces may cause deep personal inner experiences. Therefore, this journey is generally quite the opposite of a usual holiday or trek, where one seeks to forget about home and past. The journey gives us the chance to have a conscious look at whatever comes up at that moment.

Tour Leader & Tour Operator:

Roger Pfister, Swiss, born in 1960 has been based in Boudhanath, Kathmandu in Nepal since 1995. During this time he has owned and operated Snow Jewel, leading expeditions to remote locations in Nepal and Tibet. In addition, he has worked for over five years as a volunteer for the British operated not-for-profit ROKPA Nepal. Roger has practiced extensively in both the Tibetan and Theravada traditions, completing annual Vipassana retreats in Thailand at Wat Ram Poeng and in India at Bodgaya and Sarnath with Christopher Titmuss. During his time in Nepal, he spent two years in intensive study at Ka-Nying Shedrup Ling, the official seat of very venerable Chogyi Nyima Rinpoche, as well as Pullahari Monastery under the guidance of Khenpo Tsultrim Gyatso Rinpoche. His inaugural trip to Mt. Kailash was during the spring of 1996 and since then he has made over 100 circuits of the mountain and 14 of Lake Manasarovar.

- Days 3-4: Lhasa -Sightseeing: by foot we will explore Lhasa and visit the heart of Tibet - the Jokhang Temple and the Potala Palace of the Dalai Lamas. And other less famous places but more important temples.
- Day 5: From Lhasa we drive via Kambala Pass (4794m) along Yamdrok Tso (Scorpion Lake, 4488m) and Karola pass (5045m) with a beautiful glacier. Later on we will reach Gyantse's monastery with the famous Kumbum. Hotel; double room with shower (240km, 5h). Gyantse Festival; Just after arrival we will go to the Monastery to admire the 3 three Sand mandalas.
- Day 6: Gyanste festival: We can visit the dismantling of the Mandalas early in the morning as well as a fire Puja to dispel obstacles ... will visit the Kumbum and the monastery which holds most precious 14 century clay statues with Yoga mudras (postures).
- Day 7: Morning early we will see the unrolling of the Gyant thankas and make the big kora of the monastery with the pilgrims right to the bottom great the Thanka . After breakfast we drive through Shigatse to Sakya where we can take walk in the old village. Hote. (310km, 5-6h).
- Day 8: Morning 9 Am we will visit the Sakya monastery, afterwards travel on to Saga. We drive through a magnificent hill landscape. (8h drive 460 Km). Overnight in simple pilgrim's guesthouse. (Public bath). Here we meet the Sherpas and the support truck with the camping equipment coming from Nepal and have vegetarian food cooed by the lovley Sherpas all the way till we are back in Saga.
- Day 9: 9-10h drive (580km) from Saga via Drachen to Monsier (4560m). We cross several high passes and enter the high dessert of Western Tibet - through beautiful landscape from Paryang to Darchen. After crossing the Mayumla pass (5216m), we drive along the shores of Gung Gyu lake, before getting the first glimpse of the holy Mt. Kailash. Now only 1 hour dive till we reach Monsier. We stay overnight basic pilgrim guesthouse (public bath).
- Day 10: From Monsier it is only 10 Minuts to Thirthapur where we make a visit the monastery and make the Kora before we continue the drive 3-4 hours. Ride (190km) to Thöling / Zanda (3'650m), site of the legendary kingdom of Guge in the midst of a bizarre landscape. We stay at the Guest House or Camp. (Public bath)
- Day 11: Today we visit the famous citadel Tsaparang and the monastery Thöling, world famous for the magnificent murals and the spectacular setting. Overnight in Thöling at Guesthouse or Camp.

- Day 12: From Thöling there are 5-6 hours. Ride (190km) back to Darchen (4'560m). We stay in a Guesthouse (public. Bath) at the foot of Mount Kailash.
- Day 13: Begin of the Kailash kora. This is a medium trek (20km, 6-8h), slightly uphill. From the south, we reach Tarpoche, the so-called centre of the universe. Then, we pass Chuku monastery (those who have lots of energy can go for a short visit) and the west face of Kailash. Our camp is right below Dirapuk monastery at 4900m with awesome views of Mt. Kailash's north face.
- Day 14: Rest day at Mt. Kailash's north face for acclimatisation. Those who like, can visit the Dirapuk monastery (famous yogi Gyalwa Gotsangpa meditated there in a cave for long time), make an excursion to the north face (2h), stroll into a side valley (1-2h) or simply enjoy Mt Kailash's power in the camp right below Dirapuk monastery at 4900m.
- Day 15: This day is the core of the kora. This is a difficult trek (15km, 8-10h), where we need the energy reserves built up the day before. For the first 2-5h, we slowly ascend towards the Tara-Pass/Drölma-La (5630m). After a break we steeply descend to the valley (1-2h). From here it is another 2-3h slightly downhill to the camp, just 3km before Zutulpuk monastery (4790m).
- Day 16: This day is fairly easy (11km, 3-4h). We pass Zutulpuk monastery and hike slightly downhill back to Darchen where we have lunch in a simple restaurant. Afterwards, we will drive (35km, 1h) to Chiu monastery at Lake Manasarovar (4560m) where we can have a bath in the hot springs. Here, we have an amazing view of Lake Manasarovar, Gurla Mandata (7728m) and Mt. Kailash. We stay at the lake-side guesthouse. (Public bath / hot springs)
- Day 17: Rest day on the shores of Lake Manasarovar. Here you can relax, enjoy the stunning panorama, stroll along the lake shore, collecting shells / stones, take a ritual bath, or perhaps even swimming. Overnight in Guest House right on the lake.
- Day 18: Drive from Chiu back to Saga We stay at the same places as on the way in
- Day 19: Saga to Shigatse. Today the Sherpas prepare the last meal for us and head back to Nepal. We drive the same way to Shigtste. Overnight in Hotel
- Day 20: From Shigaste to Lhasa about 5 h drive on the friendship high way if we start early we still have the afternoon in Lhasa for shopping and kora of the Jokahng temple enjoy the evening with nice meal outside on a balcony restaurant.
- Day 21: Morning transfers to the airport and fly back to KTM (or if coming from main land China travel back to Mainland China). End of service. 26. June:
Earliest departure back home after 10 p.m. better stay one two days in KTM.
